EZ u3M

FACULTY NEWS

CHICAGO UNDERGRADUATE DIVISION

THE LIBRARY OF THE
OCT 12 1951
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Volume II October 1951 No. 2

RED CROSS BLOOD BANK TO BE HERE NOV. 28

The American Red Cross is asking all students and staff members to donate a pint of blood when its Bloodmobile is here Nov. 28. Arrangements have been made to receive the donations in the Health Service quarters.

Appointments will be made in advance. Further details will be announced soon.

BIRTHS

To Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gedvilas, a son, Thomas, Sept. 10; weight, 8 lbs., 9 oz.

To Mr. and Mrs. John Kromrey, a daughter, Suzan Carol.

To Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson, a daughter, Jean Ann, Aug. 6; weight, 6 lbs., 14 oz.

To Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Wilson, a son, Charles Craig, Jr., Aug. 23.

EDUCATION OFFICE MOVES TO NEW QUARTERS

Dr. Wanda Gum is now conducting education department activities from Room 31E, the east end of the Humanities office. She is head of a separate department of education, which is new here this year. Her phone number is 26.

NOTICE TO THOSE WHO RESIDE IN EVANSTON

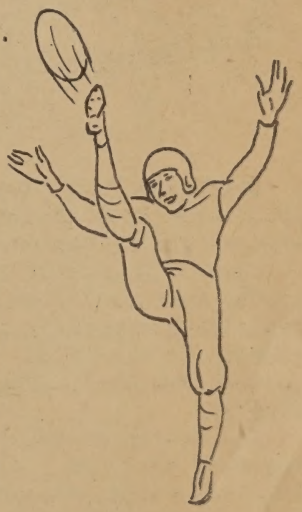
If you are interested in organizing a car pool, please call the College of Engineering, Ext. 250.

PIER ILLINI FOOTBALL SEASON OPENS OCT. 6 AT WHEATON; BACK YOUR TEAM AT ALL GAMES

Howie Schutz, head football coach, announces that his varsity eleven is coming along in fine shape. With one week left before the season opener at Wheaton Oct. 6, Schutz is putting the team through the grind of longer hours, hard scrimmages, etc., before the debut.

About 45 students turned out for an intra-squad scrimmage last Saturday at Grant Park, where the "First Squad" whipped the "Second Squad" on a muddy field.

Backfield Coach Benny Montcalm isn't too happy with the performance of some of his players, but if he keeps up his present rate of chatter to them, he'll have them in good shape for the game against Wheaton.



The line, according to Walt Versen, needs to pick up a little speed before he will be satisfied, But Walt has them practicing hard every night to gain that speed.

(Cont. on Page 2)

NEW DEGREES

Roy B. Perkins, M. A. in engineering, Cornell University.

PEM ADDS 3

NEW INSTRUCTORS

Three new faces at the gym this Semester are Dick Rader, Bill Mann, and Chuck Kristufek. Rader is from Michigan State; the others from Illinois.

OUTSTANDING SPEAKERS SCHEDULED BY G.E.D.

The General Engineering Drawing Dept. has scheduled several outstanding men in the automotive, drawing instrument, aircraft, electronic, etc., fields to speak to students enrolled in G.E.D. classes.

They include representatives from the Eugene Dietzgen Co., Frederick Post Co., and Keuffel and Esser.

(Continued from Page 1)

Listening to the coaches, one would think that the PIER ILLINI will lose all their games. One thing is certain. They are going to need a lot of support from the student body and faculty to keep in the winning column. Attend all home games and root loudly for the team. St. Rita's stadium, 6300 S. Western, is where the games will be played. It is not too far away. Plan to come out.

The first home game will be against Eureka on Oct. 13. Plan to be there.

The schedule below is for your convenience:

Oct. 6	- Wheaton	Away
Oct. 13	- Eureka	Home
Oct. 20	- Carthage*	Home
	*(Homecoming)
Oct. 26	- Aurora	Away
Nov. 3	- Camp McCoy	Away
Nov. 10	- Augustana	Away
Nov. 17	- Illinois Normal	Home

Following is a report of the various activities in which members of the staff engaged during the past summer.

Dean C. C. Caveny attended his daughter's graduation from Penn State, which preceded her receipt of an ensign's commission in the WAVES. He also visited another daughter, Mrs. John Hunter, in Florida.

The Division of Social Sciences has welcomed back Dr. Alden Gutshall, who has been doing research for the past year in the Philippines under a Fulbright scholarship. New members of the department are John Ball in geography, Adrain Corcoran in sociology, and Miss Elsa Whalley in psychology.

The biology staff traveled in all directions during the summer----the Arthur Picketts to Canada, the Kenneth Madisons to Minnesota and Wisconsin and then down to Florida; the Dwight Hopkins to Arkansas, Virginia, and Ohio; the Max Shanks to North Carolina; the Faughnans to Wisconsin and Indiana; the Albert Rouffas to Wisconsin and Minnesota; Miss Rosamond McMillan to Wisconsin and Minnesota; Miss Halina Presley to Virginia, and then to California; the Grahams on a belated honeymoon to Virginia, and Miss Thom to Florida and other points in the South.

The Math department dispersed about as fast and as far. Furio Alberti went to Paw Paw, Mich.; Mrs. Madeleine Grenard to Superior, Neb.: Miss Grace Nolan

(Continued on Page 3)

Missing from the physical sciences department this fall are W. K. Weaver, who retired at the end of the summer session, and C. G. Fawcett, who is teaching at Illinois Wesleyan College at Bloomington. Others who have left the campus are William Thomas and John Barry of the Student Counseling Bureau. The former is now with the University of Wisconsin Counseling Bureau, while Dr. Barry is a clinical psychologist at the Randolph Field Air Force Research Center.

Continued Page -4

IS YOUR BOY AT COLLEGE?

The father of a student at the University of Illinois was talking to a friend about his son's activities at college. "College must be something these days," said the father. "All my son does is to write home for money, go to parties, and run around with the pretty young girls. I made a great mistake."

"What mistake did you make?" asked the friend.

"I should have gone to college myself!"

(Continued from Page 2)
to Hancock and Copper Harbor, Mich., and then to Kansas; Miss Rose Hornacek to New York and Michigan; Irvin Feinstein to Wisconsin; Dr. John J. Corliss to his camp at Lauzon Lake, near Sault Ste. Marie in Canada; Mrs. Lona Mynaugh to Kentucky, and Miss Winifred Berglund to Florida. Dr. Frederick Nowlan went home to Vancouver, where he gave his daughter away in marriage. Mrs. Lois Stelling made a circle tour of Washington, New York, Vermont, and the Great Lakes, and Dr. Miles C. Hartley was on the faculty of the Annual Mathematics Institute at the University of Wisconsin, and later traveled east and south by auto for three weeks.

T. A. Mucha of the G.E.D. Department attended the University of Michigan summer session and then traveled through Dayton, Washington, New York, and Toronto. H. Dale Walraven was on the engineering staff of General Motors. R. B. Perkins vacationed in Colorado, and C.I. Carlson, head of G.E.D., went to Atlanta with his son on business and traveled through the Smokies, Lookout Mt., and Rock City. G. E. Cramer moved to Crete and spent most of the summer traveling through southern Indiana and Illinois visiting 4-H fairs and celebrations with his eat concessions.

Kenneth Shopen and John McNee taught courses in painting at the Evanston Art Center. The latter had an exhibition of his paintings at the Elizabeth Nelson Galleries, which received very favorable reviews. E. E. Burr's long-awaited book on the simplified method of sign writing is now on sale in the book stores. Mr. Burr reports seeing his first mountain on a trip West last summer.

Henry Williams spent the summer settling down in his new Fox River Grove home and Dick Ross worked at the Michigan Avenue Bank. Russell Haines spent the summer in his lodge near Glacier National Park in Montana. Clarence Gillett and Edwin Berg attended the University of Chicago, and the latter also went to Colorado Speings. Dorothy Eggebrecht spent the summer [illegible] new apartmen[illegible] for an audit[illegible]aker has left [illegible] firm of Chapma[illegible], and Lawrence Conway has resumed his teaching of finance on the Urbana campus. Dean R. P. Hackett, Prof. Haines, and Samuel Fox attended the National Convention of the American Accounting Association Sept. 7 and 8 in Denver. Lucile Derrick describes her summer visit as "across the street" from the Calumet Farm in Lexington, Ky. Madonna Kabbes, between visits to her relatives in Cincinnati and Urbana, spent her time outfitting her new Evanston co-op apartment, former home of Jean Maury. Edward Knudson toured the East coast and William Grampp developed a magnificent tan playing tennis at his Harbert, Mich., summer home.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS-URBANA

Hopping about Europe last summer were Else Neumann, Jose Sanchez, H. G. Merten, Eleanor Hipple, and Alden Cutshall, who delivered two lectures at Istanbul for the United Nations.

Dr. Donald W. Riddle vacationed at Ellison By, Wisc., where he worked on photography and another book on Lincoln.

Ann Heilman spent the summer testing cerebral palsey and delivered a lecture on the subject to the American Psychological Society.

ADDRESSES AIR CORPS MEN AT O'HARE FIELD

Dr. Robert L. Nicholson addressed air corps personnel, reservists and enlisted men June 29 and July 2 at O'Hare Field. His subject was "The Foreign Policies of the Soviet Union 1917-51.

JOHNSON APPOINTED RHETORIC CHAIRMAN

Falk S. Johnson has been appointed chairman of rhetoric in the Humanities Division.